thousand dollars per day. This, from whatever point of view it is looked at, is a magnificent record, and speaks volumes for the generosity of the citizens of New York and of the outside cities and towns which are so nobly co-operating in the good work. It thus far dwarfs the efforts thirty-three years ago of the Central Irish Relief Committee of this city, when the world was filled with the cry of Irish suffering, and when all Christendom was ringing with the praise of American benevolence. The Relief Committee of 1847 was organized exactly thirty-three years ago to-day. Mr. distinctly stated and their purpose in a store is and nothing could be claimed by States on lands so located. They marched across the street and through the lot to the parsonage, and as soon as they got on the veranda, stey, struck up that beautiful hymn, "We are going home," and to the astonished citizens, who were looking through the dark, it was melody indeed. When through with the singing they were politely invited in, when the Rev. Elder made a few appropriate remarks, which were met with a happy response from the Rev. W. M. West; then their presents, which was no inconsiderable amount, were pieled in the centre of the room surrounded by as happy and lovely looking set of donors as ever graced any parsonage, and while the floor was quivering under the load of presents and the happy crowd of humanity surrounding them, the silent trickling tears were rolling down the cheeks of the Reverend recipient, his wife and aged father and mother, not so much on account of the value of the presents, which was considerable, as on account of the appreciation of the labor of their minister, which humbled his heart and brough the tears of gratitude from him, his wife and aged father and mother. Senator Pendleton, Chairman of the Census Committee, reported the Ohio nominations adversely, and made the opening speech. He explained that the adverse case in regard to the enumerators), simply because it was considered on all hands to nnecessary, especially in view of the ark made by the Republicans in debate the Democrats could control the con-tions by means of their ascendancy in the Senate. Some showing of non-partisanship had been made in the ap-pointments of supervisors for some of the States, but in most of them, the Democrats have been wholly ignored by the Presi-dent and this case of Ohio was a glaring

Mr. Pendleton argued that in view of the fact that this census will be for ten years the apportionment of the representation in Congress and in State Legislatures, it is of the highest importance not only that the Supervisors shall be personally competent, but that the regults of their labors shall be above suspicton from any standpoint, political or otherwise.

Senator Thurman also spoke at considerable length in the same general line of argument as his colleague.

erable length in the same general line of argument as his colleague.

Very little dissent was expressed on the Republican side of the chamber in regard to the correctness of the allegations or soundess of the claims thus presented; but considerable time was consumed in discussing the suggestien made by Senator Edmunds, in some extended remarks (which was warmly supported also by several other Republicans) to the effect that a better and fairer way for the Democrate to attain their purpose would be to confirm such proportion of the total number of appointments as they deemed proper, and then reject the less deserving remainder, thus leaving the vacancies to be filled hereafter by persons acceptable to them. The reply to this was that a majority could not intelligently make the or four Ohio nominations, seriatim, and they were successively rejected by a division of the Senate, on strict party lines, except that Mr. Hill (Ga.), voted with the Republicans on one or two of them, and subsequently withheld his vote. The remainder of the Ohio nominations were then rejected together. #### THE SOCIALIST LAWS.

Berlin, February 11.—There is every probability that the Socialist laws will be rolonged another two years.

DEADWOOD, D.T., February 11 .- A Tim Ft. Keogh, Mont., special of February 8th, says: Sergant Glover, Co. B, Second cavalry of this post, with ten men and ten Indian scouts started out at daylight on the 4th inst. to capture a party of Indians, supposed to belong to Sittin Bull's band, who killed one man an wounded another some days ago on Miha wounded another some days ago on Miha in Chancellor Exchequer promising to bring the question of the expenditure before the House, Mr. Fawcett withdrew his motion.

Mr. O'Donnell (Home Ruler) moved his amendment calling attention to the systematic neglect of Ireland, and also to the factious misrepresentation of the acts of the Irish members of Parliament by the government and their agents, the concluding words of which stigmatize the abuses practiced by the government as worse than treason. O'Donnell having prolonged his speech till 5:35 r. m. the debate was adjourned till to-morrow.

Mr. O'Donnell became very much excited and wept when describing Parnell's services to his country. Mr. O'Donnell denied that Parnell and his followers had intended to promote agitation. Their object was to call attention to the miseries of a starying people to which the government. There was, he said, a natural law which over-rode legal rights. They only protested against the exaction of rents by vealed the fact that the burglar had succeeded in getting possession of the following articles:

A diamond ring with the monogram "P. L.," valued at three hundred dollars; a gold band ring with opal set, valued at sixty dollars; a bracelet bearing the initials "C. H. P." and the name "Mand." Two open-faced, eld style gold watckes, valued at one hundred dollars each; a lady's gold chain with slide, set with pearls; a gentleman's plain gold chain, composed of fine links, the two valued at one hundred and fifty dollars.

Miss Daisy Crothers, who has been ill for some time, is going about again.

Politics is considerably talked of hereabouts. Scouts are around, to ascertain the public mind so far as local elections and offices are concerned. As to the precidency there seems to be among Republicans a very warm feeling for Blaine, and about a like number for Sherman; as to Grant there are quite a number in favor of him, "because he is such a strong man." Several very good Republicans have said within the last week, that "they did not want Grant."

Dr. Thomas H. Logan, of Wheeling, is spoken of as a candidate for Governor. For the House of Delegates we have heard no one mentioned. Leander Browning, of Cross Creek township, was spoken of at the last election. He would be a suitable man to represent this county in the House of Delegates.

There has been but little said as regards State Senator, as by some arrangement it is said that Haucock county has the choice

Dairymens' Association. CHICAGO, February 11.-The fourteenth annual meeting of the Northwestern Dairy nens' Association at Howard, Ill., to-day adopted resolutions on the oleomargerine its manufacture is abhorrent to the sense of every right minded person, injurious to health, and should be prevented by law; that it is the duty of State governments and of the General Government; to prohibit such use; to pass laws prohibiting the manufacture of oleomargerine from fats other than caul fat or the sule of healthy animals, and requiring the sale of cleomargarine to be carried on under the supervision of the National State and Municipal Boards of Health; to prevent the sale of such diseased and injurious food; that legislation shall also be had prohibiting the use of the word 'butter,' except for the product of churned cream, and requiring the sellers of oleomargarine to mark on each package distinctly, the word! 'cleomargarine'. These resolution were transmitted to the President and other officials at Washington and of the various States and boards of health, and to members of Congress and Mayors of large cities. f every right minded person, injurious It as we received it. If such is the case, Brooke ought to have the choice now to get even. W. H. the company to comply with the provision of the new Constitution, forbidding corporations to employ Chinamen, and give work to unemployed whites, and intimating that if the request is not complied with and the distress continues it would be difficult to forstell the result. Mr.

Toane repiled that he would refer the matter to the directors and return an answer Monday next. The procession then returned, and the Sandlots subsequently dispersed. Other corporations will be called on to-morrow. The proceedings were quite orderly.

The public will be warmly welcomed to either service. Mr. Dougherty, an aged resident of Gravel Hill, was buried Wednesday.

Those who have to walk much between Gravel Hill and Indian run, of course feel an interest in the state of the walk or path up the "cut." There is only what path vehicles choose to leave, not even covered with cinders or ashes. It is probably too long an unimproved stretch to be paved by the lot owners; but something will likely be proposed by those interested, as it is talked of agitating the question.
